We were so blessed to be able to be the hands and feet of God by going to Africa to lead a medical mission. We were able to aid to 463, we also had 118 salvations with 73 couples who came to the marriage conference. God is moving in so many ways. We give God all the praise, honor, and glory! KMO Celebrate Recovery

We are having celebrate recovery every Saturday at 9AM. Come celebrate and open yourself to a whole new world with God. It can be beneficial to talk with others that have had hardships and trials. We would love to see you all there!

Recent Outreaches

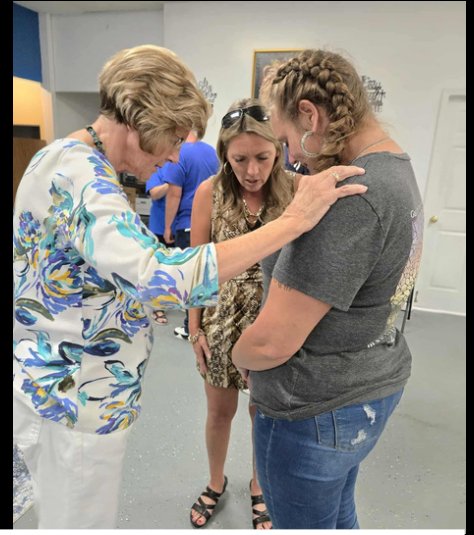

Helping empower homeless to regain a sense of identity, purpose, and worth through the love of Christ.

Kingdom Mission Outreach Center

As God has continued to bless this ministry, we are excited to see what he has in store this upcoming year. In 2025, we haven't had less than 120 people, and 20-40 volunteers weekly. We want to thank every volunteer and person that has donated this past year. We couldn't do what we are doing now without you all. We are extremely grateful for the prayers and encouragement as we continue to grow throughout this upcoming year. We love you all.

Our dinner services are every Friday night @ 26 East Broadway Winchester, KY at 7:00 pm, clothing room opens at 6:30. Anyone and everyone is welcome! Spread the word to those around you! We would love to see you all there!

KMO Mt. Sterling!

As we are moving into the new year, we have had some amazing volunteers setting up on Queen Street in Mount Sterling one Saturday a month to help spread the gospel, provide food, give out clothing, and to show the love of Christ. We have started going out on mobiles every Saturday at 2pm, We ask for prayers for our amazing Mount Sterling teams as they continue to grow and reach lost souls for the Kingdom.

GIVING UPDATE!

We now have a new giving site and will allow for more money to go to the streets! If you are a partner or just give when you can please use our new website. Please use the QR code.
